

PEACE, LOVE, & PTA INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Members of the _____ PTA, you have indicated your trust in these members of your association by electing them officers for the 20__ - 20__ school year. Will the newly elected officers, including the Historian and Parliamentarian please come forward.

_____, as President, you are in charge of keeping the peace, as you lead and encourage this PTA. (peace jewelry)

_____, as 1st Vice President in charge of membership, you are in charge of making your members have a happy face, as you work toward enrolling every parent and teacher in this PTA. (happy face stickers)

_____, as 2nd Vice President in charge of Budget and Finance, you are in charge of having a cool fundraiser, making your PTA's future so bright, you've got to wear shades. (sunglasses)

_____, as Secretary, you are in charge of wowing us with your minutes, keeping records that will be a source of information for years to come. I'm giving you a far out pen and pad to help you out!

_____, as Treasurer, you are in charge of keeping groovy financial records, as you keep accurate records of the income and expenses. I'm giving you a couple of pencils and some extra erasers just in case you need them!

_____, as Parliamentarian, you are in charge of making decisions on rules, so I am giving you flowers to give you power to enforce the bylaws!

_____, as Historian, you are in charge of creating a scrapbook that everyone will love, as you record the achievements of the PTA. (stickers)

Do you promise to serve in the office to which you were elected and to uphold the bylaws of _____ PTA to the best of your ability?

I pronounce you duly installed officers of the _____ PTA for the 20__ - 20__ school year. PEACE, LOVE, AND PTA!!!!